Henry R. Stiles : A History of the City of Brooklyn, Vol. 1 of 2: Including the Old Town and Village of Brooklyn, the Town of Bushwick, and the Village and City of Williamsburgh (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A History of the City of Brooklyn, Vol. 1 of 2: Including the Old Town and Village of Brooklyn, the Town of Bushwick, and the Village and City of Williamsburgh (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from A History of the City of Brooklyn, Vol. 1 of 2: Including the Old Town and Village of Brooklyn, the Town of Bushwick, and the Village and City of Williamsburgh There remains, then, but the pleasant duty of acknowledging my Obligations to those friends who have aided me in my self-imposed task. To John G. Shea, LL.D Of New York City, for kindness Of which his modesty would forbid mention, but without which this history might never have seen the light; to Mr. J. Carson bre voort, of Brooklyn, for his numerous and delicately rendered services, in the way of encouragement, Of valuable suggestion and contribution, by pen and pencil; to Hon. Teunis G. Bergen, Of Bay Ridge, L. I., whose aid - always so freely given-is indispensable to any one who undertakes to write Kings County history to Dr. E. B. O'callaghan, the accomplished custodian Of our State archives at Albany, for the inestimable favors he has conferred by the translation of such original documents as I needed in my work, and to many others, whose names are elsewhere particularly mentioned, I return my sincere thanks. From all, indeed, to Whom I have applied, either for materials or facilities Of research, I have received the most uniform and attering courtesy.
