Spencer G. Niles, JoAnn E Harris-Bowlsbey : Career Development Interventions (5th Edition) (Merrill Counseling) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Career Development Interventions (5th Edition) (Merrill Counseling):

Note: This is the bound book only and does not include access to MyCounselingLab with Pearson eText. To order MyCounselingLab with Pearson eText packaged with the bound book, use ISBN 0134055829. This comprehensive, top-selling text presents theories, assessments, planning tools, resources, and technologies relevant to modern career development in a practical approach that shows theory and research in action. With four chapters devoted to career development in educational settings, it analyzes the various aspects of career development interventions for the elementary, middle and high school, higher education, and community audiences, and provides strategies for implementing career counseling techniques and creating and designing career development programs. The new edition of Career Development Interventions features a stronger emphasis on the elementary school level, up-to-date coverage of the use of technology in career guidance/counseling, including the use of social media for job seeking, and the addition of new case studies and practical assignments throughout. Also available with MyCounselingLab This title is also available with MyCounselingLab an online homework, tutorial, and assessment program designed to work with the text to engage students and improve results. Within its structured environment, students see key concepts demonstrated through video clips, practice what they learn, test their understanding, and receive feedback to guide their learning and ensure they master key learning outcomes.
